HAVING A FINE MEETING

Rev. W. B. Yates Writes us an Interesting Letter From Springfield, Tennessee.

Springfield, Tenn. June 13, 1912.—My Dear Friend Jenkins: I am here in the town of Springfield in what promises to be a wonderful meeting. The Holiness people of Robertson county have a beautiful new white tent, sixty by ninety feet and well seated and lighted, with a large platform seating one hundred and ten singers, piano and organ and a few other instruments and best of all these people have the Lord with them. They do things on a large scale. Last night was the first service in the meeting. I stepped off the train at 7:30 p. m. yesterday and was met by Bro. G. E. Smith, the hardware man, also a real estate dealer and President of the Robinson county Holiness Association; not a "come-out-er" but a stay-in-er. He is a member of the Baptist Church in good standing with his head full of grey matter and his big heart full of Holy Ghost religion. I was not many minutes finding a seat in his big auto and a whirl around the corner, a honk and a streak of dust and we were shaking hands with Mrs. Smith and the children; a good supper and then another spring over to the tent to meet at least five hundred people who had gathered under the tent to be at the first service. After a real good old fashioned hand shaking time, and some pleasant words from many we have known for years, the first song rang out clear and strong that brought many more well wishers into and around the tent. The song service over then some real unctious prayers and a strong sermon by evangelist G. H. Hammon from the text, "We will rejoice in thy salvation and in the name of our God. We will set up our banners. Psalm 20 ann 5. The man of God said: "We are in a battle all the time in the Christian race not on dress parade; but we are real soldiers and we can be successful only as we follow our leader and our Captain."

I am praising God this bright Saturday morning for a rest in my soul and a willingness to fight the good fight. Paul said to Timothy, "Thou, therefore, my son, endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ." 2 Tim., Chap. 2 verse 3. I wish every one who reads these words would read the entire chapter, then ask himself the question, Do I measure up to this chapter, if not why am I praying and planning to have a great tent meeting in reach of my own people just as soon as my Heavenly Father will open the door. O Lord, how long must I wait to see a great, sweeping revival in Marion.

W. B. Yates.

Bradley's Speech Attacking Roosevelt Said To Be Hot.

Chicago, Ill. June 15.—Persons who traveled to Washington with Senator Bradley, said that his seconding speech for the president has been written on asbestos as a means of preserving it until next week. The Bradley speech is said to be the hottest thing ever delivered in a Republican convention and to amplify the charges against Theodore Roosevelt. The "old war horse" is going in to the fight with all his colors flying.

Hill-Walker.

Married Sunday morning, June 16, in the presence of a large concourse of friends and relatives, at the home of the bride's parent, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Hill of Chapel Hill, their daughter, Miss Elva, to Mr. Leslie Walker.

The bride is an attractive and popular young lady and was one of the county's most popular teachers. The groom is a son of B. F. Walker, and a prosperous young farmer of many sterling qualities.

The pastor, Rev. A. J. Thompson pronounced the ceremony, and the wedding march was beautifully played by Miss Rena Hill, a popular young lady and a talented musician of the community.

The presents received by the happy couple were numerous and beautiful.

The writer joins their many friends in wishing them a long and happy life.

G. D. Kinsolving of Salem, who has been enjoying the waters of Dawson Springs and visiting relatives in Eddyville, passed through Marion Tuesday night en route to his home.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS FOR FOR SIR KNIGHTS AT DENVER

Committee Has Contracted for 2,300 Rooms. All Grand Commanderies Located.

Denver, Colo. May 20.—Twenty-three hundred rooms in hotels of the city have been contracted for to be occupied during the Knight Templars conclave in August 1912. Practically all the Grand Commanders have been located and those that have not been taken care of can be located quickly when they apply to the hotel committee. Headquarters of Grand Master, William B. Melish will be in the Brown Palace Hotel, one of the finest hotels of the West.

R. E. Sir Davis E. Burton, Chairman and Sir W. F. R. secretary of the hotel committee have been busy several months arranging for the comfort of the visitors. So thoroughly has the work been done that the Triennial committee is prepared to promise all fraters who contemplate attending the conclave that their comfort during their stay in Denver is assured. The committee also wishes to make the declaration that there is no city in the world the size of Denver where so many good hotels are located and few cities twice the size as have such a large number of first-class hotels.

Quite a large number of constituent commanderies have secured hotel accommodations and headquarters through personal representatives who have journeyed to Denver for that purpose. The hotel committee advises all commanderies to send representatives to select accommodations and headquarters, especially if a considerable number of rooms are desired. Although the committee is competent to make good selections a personal representative of a commandery on the ground, who is familiar with all of the requirements and desires of his fellow fraters, no doubt can make a much more satisfactory selection.

Even at this early date the indications are that there will be a record-breaking attendance at the next conclave. And while Denver can house and feed many thousand of visitors at one time, the committee urges that applications for accommodations be not delayed too long. Fraters can get in direct communication with the hotel committees through their local commanderies.

Following is a list of the headquarters of the Grand Commanderies already located:

Alabama, Metropole hotel; Arizona, Albany, California, Albany; Georgia, Brown Palace; Idaho, Brown Palace; Illinois, Brown Palace; Indiana, Brown Palace; Iowa, Brown Palace; Kansas, Toers; Kentucky, Metropole; Louisiana, Brown Palace; Maine, Albany; Massachusetts, Brown Palace; Michigan, Brown Palace

Minnesota, Metropole; Missouri, Savoy; Nebraska, Metropole; New Hampshire, Wynne; New Jersey, Brown Palace; New Mexico, Brown Palace; New York, Brown Palace; North Carolina, Metropole; North Dakota, Brown Palace; Ohio, Brown Palace; Oklahoma, Albany; Oregon, Oxford; Pennsylvania, Brown Palace; Rhode Island, Brown Palace; Tennessee, Adams; Texas, Brown Palace; Utah, Brown Palace; Virginia, Adams; Wisconsin, Brown Palace; Wyoming, Brown Palace.

INTERESTING FIGURES ON GOLD PRODUCTION

Carbonate Hill, in the Leadville (Colorado) Mining District.

The total gold output in the United States from 1901 to 1910, inclusive, was $976,215,800. Of this production Colorado contributed $237,875,300; California, $184,141,000; Alaska, $144,275,000; Nevada, $90,522,900; South Dakota, $64,643,200.

Although many surface deposits of bonanza ore have been exhausted, there are now more and better opportunities for profitable mining than ever before in Colorado. Mining costs have been greatly reduced by the extension of electric power lines to nearly every mining district of the state. Recent developments in the application of the cyanide process make it possible to earn dividends by extracting gold from ore that a few years ago was cast upon the waste dump. The construction of deep drainage tunnels has made it possible to work mines at a greater depth.

Cripple Creek remains the greatest gold camp in the state; but in other districts, especially in the La Platas and the rest of the San Juan district, many new producers are developing. Colorado continues to produce silver and lead in large quantities, but in the last two years zinc has ranked next to gold in importance.

THE HALL OF FAME.

EDGAR ALLAN POE—Celebrated poet and short story writer. Born Boston Jan. 19, 1809; died Baltimore Oct. 7, 1849. Son of actors, he was adopted by John Allan of Richmond and educated in America and England.

Spent some time at West Point, but was expelled. On being disowned by his adopted father he made a precarious living with his pen, editing various periodicals, writing criticisms and turning out an occasional poem or short story, the most finished and exquisite that had yet appeared in America. "The Raven" was published in 1845 and almost immediately took rank as one of the great short poems of the world. "The Bells" and "Annabel Lee" had almost as great vogue. His remarkable short stories are still read widely. In 1847 Poe's wife died, and he was himself very ill. He never seemed to recover from the blow and two years later was picked up in the streets of Baltimore in a dying condition.

Canal at New Madrid Bend Only One Mile Across

Hickman, Ky. June 17.—There is a movement on foot to cut a channel across the Mississippi River, at Madrid bend several miles below Hickman, which will change the channel of the river so as to leave the city of New Madrid Mo. high and dry. The inconvenience suffered by that town as a result of the recent overflow has served to stimulate the citizens to take this step. They are being cooperated with by some of the prominent men of Tennessee.

For many years the extreme bend of the river at that point, which is thirty-five or forty miles around and only one mile across has been a proposition with which Missouri, Tennessee, and Kentucky have had to contend. The progress of navigation has been impeded by having to make a run of thirty-five or forty miles when one mile would suffice. In addition, farm lands have been greatly damaged during overflows. Years ago this neck of land was seven miles wide and is now only one.

If the proposed canal is made it will be at a point near the old Continental building and will be a mile in width and a mile long. Money is being raised by the citizens to aid the Government in the work, as $25,000 has already been raised at New Madrid. A great deal of interest is being taken in the project and it looks now as if something is going to be done.

It Pays to Advertise.

It is the momentum of advertising that carries a business along. It is like the steam power which carries along the railroad train. Cut off the steam and the train will move for some distance without any perceptible diminution of speed, but gradually it comes to a stop. It is the same way with advertising. It does not always require a fortune to advertise. The small inexpensive ads which have "catchy" lines, are generally the magnets that attract buyers. No business can exist without advertising. People must know where you are and what you have to sell or you might as well be at the North Pole as far as they are concerned.—Sturgis News Democrat.

GRACE WILL RECOVER FROM WIFE'S BULLET

Man Shot by Better Half is Operated Upon For Removal of Bullet by Surgeons.

Newman, Ga., June 17.—Eugene H. Grace, who was mysteriously shot at his home in Atlanta last March, and who has since been partially paralyzed, was operated on today for the removal of the bullet supposed to have severed his spinal cord. The ball was not removed, but it was found that the spinal cord was not severed, nor was the bullet in the spinal column. It was embedded in one of the vertebrae causing it to press against the cord, resulting in paralysis. Grace showed no bad effects from the operation and is expected to recover.

Mrs. Daisy Opie Grace, his wife, formerly of Philadelphia, who is charged with the shooting, is now at liberty on bond. Her trial is set for the week of June 24, but the developments in Grace's condition may result in an other postponement.—Associated Press.

1. Don't marry a doll and find fault because she is not a helpmate.
2. Don't be afraid of a woman with education and some brains.
3. Don't forget that nine out of ten times your wife wants to be your chum.
4. Don't nag your wife until she loses her temper or goes insane.

5. Don't make the blunder of believing that a four, five or six room flat can occupy all of her time, energy and brain powers.

6. Don't forget that life without children is a mighty empty sort of existence.

7. Don't refuse to do what you can to lighten the burden of child rearing in your home.

8. Don't forget that you get out of marriage exactly what you put into it.

9. Don't make your purse strings the means of controlling your wife's thought and conduct.

10. If there are no children, don't oppose your wife's taking her place beside you in the workaday world.

Copious rains have fallen on all parts of the state and blessed us particularly, the last week. Fine showers last Thursday brought a good tobacco season, and many plants were set. Gardens and vegetation generally were revived and prospects now are flattering for a good crop and every body is happy.

Edward Swanger, a son-in-law of former Governor Wm. S. Taylor of Ky., committed suicide in Indianapolis, Sunday, because the firm he traveled for did not make the expected raise in his salary.

Ward Headley well known at Princeton where he married Miss Alma Powell, died at the Norton infirmary in Louisville, Saturday afternoon after a long illness, and his remains were taken to Madisonville, his native city for interment.

At Dixon: Ky., Monday of last week, George Winstead a boy of ten years, pointed a pistol which he did not know was loaded at Carroll Smith 9 years old. Carroll was buried Tuesday. The information as to why the Winstead child was allowed such a toy to play with has not been given out. They were playmates and friends. No feud.

Champ Clark and his friends are endeavoring to repay Ollie James for his work in Kentucky for the speaker, by favoring James' election as temporary chairman of the Democratic national convention at Baltimore.

One of the acts of the late legislature, other than the passing of the drinking cup law, was the one creating McCreary county. It has now been discovered that the "county" has not a sufficient area or population and therefore the act will be null and void and the state put to much expense as well as legal complications.

yet living and thankful to the great Supreme Being. We have been writing for the Record Press almost every week sometimes as "Rambler," occasionally over our own signature; but we never write any insinuations or burlesques about any person place or thing. We thank our friend of Rodney for his kind regards.

So here goes: We are having a splendid tobacco season just now and the farmers are all glad to see it for they can now finish transplanting their tobacco crops.

In our rambles over a part of the county last Saturday and Sunday, we noticed the meadow crop is looking fine and will soon be ready for the blade. The wheat is estimated at about 75 per cent. The corn crop is going to be short acreage, but we hope it will make up in yield.

Last Saturday was the first meeting of trustees to employ teachers. The four educational division boards met in their respective district, and the greater number of schools were closed out by contract.

Almost any body who wants too can find some place to go on Sunday where there will be dinner on the ground, such as children's day, missionary services, etc' Such services are all right from several view points and are a benefit to any church or community. So we say, go on with the good work go on.

The new executive mansion to be erected by the State for Governor McCreary, will be built at once by the Capital Lumber Co.
of Frankfort, whose bid, $61, $79.00 was the lowest there being three others beside. With the site and lawn decoration the total cost will run around $100,000.00. The Governor will need a mistress for this magnificent home.

THE FAMOUS FORD AUTOMOBILES

$690 - TOURING - $690

"Safety"-spell it the new way and it's "F-o-r-d." Certainty of operation-strength and lightness, made possible by Vanadium steel-simplicity of construction, these make the Ford the safest car in the world. A reason why every third car on the highway this year will be a Ford.

$590 - RUNABOUT - $590

All life is a "whiz"--and every third whiz on the road is a Ford. It's the car of the millions and the millionaire--lightest, rightest, most economical. Many thousands of the seventy-five thousand we're building this year are being sold to the owners of more expensive cars.

$590 - PHYSICIANS - $590

And this is this stamp of approval of a responsible maker-proud of his good handiwork. The "Winged-Pyramid" is backed by the biggest reliability in all automobiledom-something better than a guarantee-a worthy reputation-and a car that will go seventy-five thousand strong this year.

GLEN DALE

(Delayed from last week.)

First, we wish to correct a mistake made last week in regard to the District convention which is to be held here the 23rd of July, instead of 22nd, as we announced last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Conyer, of New Salem, spent Sunday with their son, Ode, and wife near here.

We are called upon to give up our brother and friend Eld. Charles Ramsey, who passed to his reward Saturday morning June 8th, 1912, very unexpectedly. While he had been in ill health for several years yet he seemed much better and his family entertained hopes that he might be restored to health again. But alas! their hopes were blasted when he went to sleep never to awake in this world. He will be greatly missed not only in the home, but in the Sunday School where he always was present when possible. He loved any good work, and his talks to the Sunday School will be missed. He seemed especially interested in the children that they would early seek the God that he served and become great and good men and women. It might be well to state the particulars concerning his death as there are always so many reports circulated concerning a sudden death. As we understand, Bro. Ramsey was sitting asleep in his chair apparently resting perfectly when he gasped and in two minutes he was gone. His wife, daughter and daughter-in-law, did all they could to revive him but before his sons could get there from the field near by, he was at rest. He was buried at Freedom on Sunday evening at three o'clock. He leaves a wife and four sons, David, Charles, Levi and William; and two daughters, Mrs. Melvin Roberts, who resides in Tennessee and Miss Bertha Ramsey. The bereaved family have the sympathy of this neighborhood.

Mrs. P. C. Stephenson, of Tolu, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Frank Jacobs.

John Wm. Fowler and family, of Oak Hall, spent Saturday night and Sunday with her parents, Mr and Mrs. Tom Butler.

Mrs. Sherman Clark, of Marion, spent Saturday night and Sunday the guest of her son, Lummae, and Miss Eva Yates, of Marion, spent the week-end there, also.

Miss Ethel Minner, Caney Fork, attended Sunday School at this place Sunday.

W. M. Hurley and wife went to Marion Saturday.

Misses Cora Moore and Clara Hurley were guests of Mrs. R. C. Moore, at the Crittenden Springs, on Wednesday of last week.

PARCELS POST LAW

Rural Carriers Will Be Loaded Down July The First.

The rural carriers out of this city, the same as in other parts of the country, are looking forward to the approach of July 1st, with anything but pleasing anticipation. An order has been received announcing that on and after that date, every rural mail carrier will begin the delivery of mail parcels heretofore exempted from delivery.

This is to be done under a new parcels post ruling recently made by the department. It affects every section of the country and will mean the handling of a vast amount of mail not before attempted.

At present the order affects only the rural routes. Should it be found practical for the rural districts it will be made to include the city deliveries as well.

According to the new order, all fourth class matter weighing less than 11 pounds will be delivered on the rural routes. The maximum charge for the delivery of an 11 pound package will be 25 cents. There is to be no difference made in the charge on account of the distance the package is to be carried, and the rates charged by the express companies will be much higher in most cases.

The plan will be given a two-years' test, beginning July 1, 1912, and will continue until June 30, 1914. The postmaster at the starting point of the rural route shall receive and deliver to carriers on rural routes, all packages not prohibited in the ordinary mails. The carriers shall collect along their routes all such packages as comes under this rule.

Postage shall be paid at the rate of 1 cent for each two ounces or less, and 2 cents for more than two ounces. For packages weighing more than 4 ounces, the scale is graduated.

This graduated scale makes the maximum charge for the package over the parcels post route 25 cents, much lower than the rates charged by express companies for similar packages under the most favorable conditions.

At present Uncle Sam is carrying packages through the mails to foreign countries at a much lower rate than to his own citizens. This has been done in order not to conflict with foreign postal regulations.

Mail order houses will flood the mails with parcels that are consigned to their rural customers and the latter will also take advantage of the new order as a means of saving them many trips to the city.

But the carriers need have no occasion for alarm as Uncle Sam seldom expects an employee to do more than a day's work.

In fact, he forbids any overtime and should the business demand it, additional men will be employed.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedy. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give one Hundred Dollars for each case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by local applications. Send for circular free.

PAPER BAG COOKING

Great System Perfected by M. Soyer, Famous London Chef.

GOOD THINGS FOR HUSBAND'S CRONIES.

By Martha McCulloch Williams.
Man's part at home is to endure all things and eat all things, smiling as though he liked it all, whatever the facts in the case may be. And most men, I believe, nobly fill the part. Therefore, it seems to me fitting that every once in a while they should be given, by way of reward, a supremely masculine evening, whereas it is understood that woman's part is to stand in wait and supply the good things to eat—good things that have been cooked to perfection in paper bags.

As to the nature of the evening, let the man himself decide.

Many things heretofore described in this column suit such festive occasions. Savory mouthfuls, hot chicken biscuits, hot oyster sandwiches, paper-bagged oysters either in shells after Soyer's recipe, or cooked in quantity with butter, cream and lemon juice and their own liquor added later—they all will satisfy hungry souls and whet the palate for things potable, especially if supplemented with cheese crackers, also hot, salted nuts of any sort, olives warmed in a very little sherry, or crisp radishes and invariably good sharp cucumber pickle.

Sliced beef crisped is not to be despised, especially if the man of the house has a weakness for ale or "half-and-half." To go with it make prickled biscuit; none you can buy will match them. The foundation is puff paste, and do not spare either shortening or work in its making. Put in a trifle more salt than for pastry uses, roll out less than a quarter inch thick, and cut in rounds two and a half inches across. Prick them well over and bake crisp in a well buttered bag. Sprinkle about half of them before baking lightly with dry mustard or black pepper and paprika, or even the barest dusting of cayenne. Keep these seasoned biscuit separate from the plain ones and serve on separate plates. Instead of the mustard and pepper, you can use finely grated cheese, or lay a very thin slice of cheese between two biscuit after baking and heat in a bag until the cheese melts. Pimento cheese spread between such biscuit, which have been very lightly buttered, also makes a well flavored mouthful.

Raisins cut very small, mixed with sharp cucumber pickle, also cut very fine, and worked smoothly through the best cream cheese with a very little French dressing or else a bare dusting of black pepper make a novel and appetizing filling for these biscuit sandwiches. You can split the biscuit, or make them very thin, butter the under one on top, and bake them together. The baking can be done in the afternoon and the biscuit heated before filling them with the ready prepared filling.

Serve all things from a buffet, even if you must improvise it, by up-ending a dry goods box and covering it with a cloth. Set things on it, and let the eaters walk up a themselves, yourself discreetly withdrawing, but remaining within call, so as to remove supplies at need. When the hot things have been duly eaten, the cold ones duly drank, and the serious business of the assemblage is again under way, as unobtrusively as possible refill the buffet with platters of sliced cake, all sorts at hand, tartlets, turnovers—all manner of good things. Indeed, your pantry or your cake box can furnish forth. With these supply fresh potables—the sort depending on the individual taste and purse. (Copyright, 1911, by the Associated Literary Press.)

FINE FISH AND FRESH

By Nicolas Soyer, Chef of Breakfast Club, London.

Herring a la Russe: Take four very soft-roed herrings. Get the fish monger to bone them for you. In the center of each place a big teaspoonful of French mustard and a bit of butter. Dust lightly with black pepper and put in a well buttered bag. Add to them half a wineglassful of either hock or sherry and half a wineglassful of either shallot or tarragon vinegar, as preferred. Cook for fifteen to eighteen minutes, according to the thickness of the fish, in a moderately hot oven. Dish up on a hot dish and serve with a beet salad. This is a most appetizing way of cooking herrings, but must be done in the bag if it is to be done to perfection.

Smelts Milanaise: Clean a dozen smelts, roll them in flour. Put an ounce of butter in a very hot dish, let it melt, roll the fish in this butter, sprinkle with a little cayenne pepper and a little grated Parmesan, and place them side by side in a well buttered paper bag. Cover lightly with bread crumbs and pour a little tomato sauce over each smelt. Seal up and cook for eight minutes in a very hot oven. Serve with slices of lemon.

Fresh Herring: Slit the fish on each side in a horizontal direction. Place on it a little mace, bay leaves, parsley, a small piece of onion and some salt and pepper. Add two tablespoonfuls of vinegar. Place in a paper bag, seal up, put on the boiler in a moderate oven for twenty minutes. (Copyright, 1911, by Sturgis & Walton Company.)

WELL DESERVED

The Praise That Comes from Thankful Marion People.

One kidney remedy has known merit. Marion people rely upon it. That remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills. Marion testimony proves it reliable. W. I. Tabor, Marion, Ky., says: "I suffered for ten years from kidney trouble. There were severe pains in the small of my back, I was unable to sleep well and arose in the morning, feeling lame and sore. I was always tired, languid and nervous headaches were common and I also suffered from dizzy spells. My kidneys were disordered and the kidney secretions passed too frequent. It was finally my good fortune to hear of Doan's Kidney Pills and I procured a box at Haynes & Taylor's Drug Store. I used them and in three weeks was greatly relieved. Thus encouraged, I continued taking this remedy and the contents of one box effected a complete cure. I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone suffering from kidney complaint."

DYNAMITE BRINGS RAIN IN TEXAS

Five Hours' Bombardment Results in Showers Where Drought Had Prevailed.

Anson, Tex., June 15.—Anson received rain yesterday by the dynamite route. Becoming impatient with what seemed to be a continued drought, residents of Anson, Stamford and Hamlin, in Jones County, became interested in the dynamiting experiment and tried it. The firing was done about five miles northwest of Anson, beginning at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and lasting until 3 o'clock.

By the time the last shot was fired big drops of rain were falling, although they were intermittent, as at the beginning of a shower. The rainfall continued light, but clouds piled up in a manner to give hopes of a good rain. These clouds banked up northwest of Anson in the direction where the firing was done.

of the family were out picking cherries. During their absence the house caught on fire and six-year-old Ernest, despite the danger to himself, rushed in and grabbed his baby brother from the bed and carried him out to safety. Then the little fellow returned and succeeded in pulling three or four chairs and some bed clothing out of the house.

Neighbors soon arrived on the scene, but before they could do anything the building had been destroyed, with practically all of its contents.

OLD SORES OR ULCERS.

Old sores and ulcers that will not heal under the application of a reliable salve or other external remedy are unquestionably caused by diseased blood. A constitutional treatment is necessary in such cases to drive out humors and taints in the blood, and bring back its original purity, strength and quality. A time tried and tested remedy for this purpose is Swain's Panacea. It is the one great Blood Cleanser. When the body has been made clean internally through the powerful renovating properties of this remedy the sores will heal to stay healed. For sale at J. H. Orme's drug store, Marion, Ky. j13 3t

THE END OF TUBERCULOSIS

Care For Hopeless Cases.

By S. ADOLPHUS KNOFF, M. D.
The criticism has been made, and I have heard it even from medical men, that it was a waste of money to bother with the hopelessly ill; that institutional treatment should be reserved for the curably affected who could again be made breadwinners and useful citizens. Those who made these criticisms are not even right from the utilitarian point of view, much less from the humanitarian aspect of the problem. One who has had any experience at all with tuberculosis as a physician or as a social worker will know that the consumptive, no matter in what stage of the disease, if he is untrained and uncared for, constitutes a great menace in his workshop and in his home. It must be evident that if the patient is confined all the time to his bed the danger of his constituting a center of infection in a crowded bedroom, often without light and air, is very great. Such a patient, because he is not taken care of at the right time and in the right place, costs a good deal more in the end, and not infrequently additional lives are sacrificed through his condition and environments. This is my answer from the utilitarian point of view to the statement that it is a useless expenditure to take care of the seemingly hopeless cases.

Drowned in Saving Life of Another.

Bardonia, Ky., June 11.—"Footjack" Reynolds, aged six-five, who lived the life of a hermit in the woods bordering the fork river, met tragic death while engaged in a heroic effort to save the life of Lon Allen. Reynolds heard the frantic cries for aid and rushed to the river. Without waiting to disrobe, the hermit plunged into the river and swam to Allen. The latter was near drowning, and in his desperate efforts to save himself threw his arms about Reynolds so that the latter was unable either to assist the other or to do anything for himself. In the struggle that followed Reynolds was drowned, while Allen was pulled out by one who came to his assistance.

Horries Two Girls.

Perryville, Ky., June 7.—Two daughters of Smith Cox, who recently removed from the Dry Creek neighborhood to the J. W. Cox farm, were horrified on awakening a few mornings ago to find a huge black snake coiled around the foot of the folding bed. On first seeing the black object, in the dim light, the girl supposed it to be a garment, and reaching for it, found it to be an immense snake. It crawled from the bed and was coiled under a chair by the time the frightened girls' father killed it.

Then became an editor and during his life edited several weekly papers, mostly of the abolitionist persuasion. One of his newspaper offices was sacked and burned. Served for a few months as secretary of an anti-slavery society in New York. During all this time was sending occasional poems and prose sketches to various periodicals, including the newly started Atlantic Monthly. His verse had great vogue and was collected and published from time to time in book form. Perhaps his best known production is "Snow Bound."

SEVEN SPRINGS

Death has again invaded our ranks and claimed for its victim Frances Campbell, who departed this life June 9th, 1912, after an illness of twelve days of pneumonia and typhoid fever. His remains were interred in Koon cemetery on Monday following. Rev. J. C. Kinsolving conducted the funeral services by reading a portion of scripture from the following:—Acts 10:34-37; First Cor. 15:40. Bro. Kinsolving delivered a very comforting and impressive talk, admonishing the bereaved family to look to Christ for help in this their time of trouble. A very impressive prayer was offered by Rev. George Summers. Mr. Campbell was a member of Seven Springs Baptist church and was a regular attendant, always trying to do what he could for the cause of Christ for the benefit of his church, and for the uplifting of humanity. Only two weeks previous to this man's death he was at Sunday School, seemingly in good health, but alas, two weeks following we beheld him a lifeless corpse. He will be missed by his family, his friends and his church, but weep not as those who have no hope in Jesus Christ for we are taught in God's word that if in this life only we have hope in Christ Jesus, we are of all men, most miserable, but not so with this man. He had trusted in Jesus and had the assurance of a home beyond this vale of tears. And now I would say to his wife, three children, brothers and sisters, weep not for your loved one, for he has gone to his reward, but ever strive to meet him in the great beyond when done with life's battles here and trust your troubles to Jesus. He alone can help you.

A precious one from you has gone. A voice you loved is stilled. A place is vacant in your home Which never can be filled.
